TEACHING METHODOLOGY

General methodological aspects of the subject

The objective of the working methodology can be summarized in the following points:

Understand the effect of new tools, processes, and platforms on companies' digital strategy.

Be able to develop and implement a digital marketing plan.

Be capable of integrating the digital strategy into the overall marketing plan of a company.

Evaluate the parameters for launching a new digital business.

Analyze, understand, and convert the results of the strategy into benefits for the company (ROI).

It is expected that, once the course is completed, students will be able to develop digital marketing strategies, direct their actions towards customers, analyze the actions taken, measure the results (ROI), and choose the best tools to carry out the actions. All this with the rhetorical and sales skills of a digital marketing project.

The teaching method employed in the course is also aimed at strengthening the spirit of self-criticism and creativity, which are essential for the development of their professional careers, as well as enhancing their communication skills in a socially interactive classroom environment.

The course methodology is based on different types of sessions covering multiple areas of the learning sequence. Throughout the class, students will solve problems, make presentations, and discuss new trends and business cases.

The professor will provide the necessary documentation that students must read before each class.

EVALUATION AND CRITERIA

Evaluation activities	Evaluation criteria	Weight
Final exam	Rubric	50 %
Individual work	Rubric	10 %
In-group work	Rubric	40 %

Ratings

Correction rubrics will be included in each assignment.

For ICADE OUT students, 100% of their grade will be the final exam.

Students may lose the right to take the final exam if they do not meet the minimum attendance requirement of 75% of the sessions.

Students who do not pass the course in the extraordinary session will retain their practical grade and retake the complete exam. If they have not passed the practicals, they must complete a special practical plan.

Students in their third or subsequent attempts must complete a special practical plan (50%) and the exam (50%).

Note: The improper use of ChatGPT or other generative artificial intelligence (GAI) will be considered a serious offense according to the University's General Regulations, art. 168.2.e, as: "carrying out actions intended to falsify or defraud the academic performance evaluation systems." The consequences of this will be "temporary expulsion of up to three months or the prohibition of taking exams in the next session following the imposition of the sanction, in one or more subjects in which the student is enrolled, [...] in addition to resulting in a failing grade (0) in the respective subject, [...] [and] the prohibition of taking the exam for that subject in the next session." In this regard, the use of ChatGPT or other GAI will be considered improper (and therefore prohibited) in the context of team work and exercises/cases in the subject, as its use would seriously compromise the ability of these evaluation systems to assess the student's acquisition of the subject's competencies.
