COURSE DESCRIPTION

Subject Contextualization
Course Description
Art is not only a cultural production but also a social and historical manifestation of culture. Learning about Spanish art also enhances our knowledge about the transformation of Spanish society. The course is a synthesis of the essential aspects of Spanish Art and it is designed to give students a direct, on site contact with unique Spanish art production. The course will focus mainly on painting. Throughout the course students will acquire a general understanding and vocabulary of art, and develop their own critical thinking regarding artistic inquiry and aesthetic enjoyment. Students will take an active participation in this course through lectures and visiting specific art museums in Madrid; they will have to put into practice the tools learnt in class by analyzing artworks seen in their museum visits and writing an essay.
Requirements
Knowledge of Art History is desirable but not essential. To attend this course a level of C1 (advanced) English is required. Class attendance is compulsory.

* Important: this university requires you to pass the exam in order to pass the course. Students who fail the exam (less than 5.0) will automatically fail the course, regardless their performance during the term.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Attendance is required for this course. If students miss class for a justifiable reason (i.e. medical condition) they have to inform the teacher and hand in a justification document. In such cases, the absence will not be counted. Any unjustified absence will have a negative impact on the final grade.

Class participation involves: showing a positive attitude in class by coming to class prepared, having read the material indicated or having done the homework, answering questions from the teacher, listening to your classmates and teacher respectfully, engaging in group activities. Students must engage in critical listening and thinking, and share their opinions in class debates.

Essay: students will elaborate a research project, presenting their findings in a final paper.

Compulsory museum visits: Deadlines for the museum visits will be announced at the beginning of the course.

Important: You must provide proof of attendance for the 3 visits in order to get credit, i.e. entrance ticket. If you fail to provide the proof of attendance, you cannot get full credit for your work.
