SPECIFIC DATA OF THE SUBJECT

Contextualization of the subject
Contribution to the professional profile of the degree
European integration and globalization are matters of great importance related to the linguistic and communicative competence in English language. The subject English for Education I provides students with a basic and instrumental knowledge of the English language. Working on the four skills, the subject aims at reviewing students' prior knowledge of English and reinforcing initial fluency. The level of competence to be achieved by the students as regards the four skills will range from B1 to B2. Moreover, this subject will help future graduates achieve a good communicative competence in English language and be able to know and apply the appropriate methodological tools and strategies for teaching English in Primary Education.
Prerequisites
All the lectures will be taught in English therefore students are expected an intermediate level of English.

Ratings

- IMPORTANT:

- Each student must bring the subject dossier (2025-2026) printed during the classes. It is not allowed to bring a dossier from another academic year. After the third warning, the student won't be allowed to come into class.

- One decimal place is just taken into account in the final grades.

- Attendance to class and classroom teaching activities are compulsory (see schedule). If a student fails 66% compulsory attendance (artículo 15 de la Normativa Académica), s/he may not be allowed to take the final written exam.

- A medical certificate (specifying date and time) is required to retake any continuous assessment activity. The student will send the certificate via mail the same day he/ she can't attend the continuous assessment task and the lecturer will arrange another day. But if the student does not show up, s/he would miss the opportunity to retake it.

- Your mails will only be answered if they include the appropriate greeting forms and they are written in English.
