Professor: Carmen de Andrés

Subject: Management Skills for finance

Topic	Learning Resources
Management Skills in finance	 Introduction Skills for success in finance Skills and behaviours involved Cineforum: The internship Attitude is the key
Time management	 Recognise the effect of poor organisation and its relationship to stress Identify major time wasters and learn to control them Set up and use the time management system that's right for you Apply tools and techniques to overcome procrastination Getting things done technic
Comunication: Introduction Recruitment Interview I	The importance of communication in management Communication theory Communication skills involved: Active listening, empathy, assertiveness Communication in different situations: Interview Presentation Writing Prepare the interview properly ¿What should you do before the interview? Know the position and the company Psychological preparation Types of interview and how manage them Biographical interview Competences Interview Stress interview Stress interview What interviewers are looking for? Interview role play
Recruitment Interview II	Types of interview and how manage them Biographical interview Competences Interview Stress interview What interviewers are looking for? Interview role play

Communication: Presentations	 Objective of the presentation and the audience Main topic and scructure dialoge Keep the audience awake Suport tools: videos, powerpoint, prezi, music Presentation examples and discussion From now on every session will have students presentations, every student will make a presentation and will received feedback
Team work	 What is a Team? Different roles being an effective group Skills for a healthy group climate Are We a Team?" Role play
Negociation	 Negotiation Strategy Influence and persuasion Preparing for negotiations Building the relationship Eliciting information effectively Dealing with the tough guys Closing the deal Negotiating with flair
Final Exercise	Presentations in groups putting into action all the skills worked.