Grading

For the purposes of the normal development of the work sessions in the classroom, the teaching team of this subject values that the student maintains an active attitude of listening and participation, which keeps him/her connected with the reflections that is developed around the subject in the class. In this sense, the use of electronic devices outside of the moments reserved for them in the context of the class will be considered negatively.

- The incurrance of a serious academic fault, such as plagiarism of previously published materials or copying in your exam or other evaluated activity, may lead to the opening of a sanctioning file and the loss of two calls.
- To pass the subject in ordinary call, the student must pass each of the activities that are part of the final grade of the subject. The exercises that are not delivered under the exact conditions of place, date and time scheduled for each year, and communicated at the beginning of the course / semester in the schedule of the subject will not be taken into account.
- It is mandatory to attend all sessions of directed work. Students who do not attend any of these classes will obtain a grade of "0" (zero) in the group work corresponding to said class.

- Those students who have obtained an exemption from schooling must confront only the "exam" activity (SE1), and their final grade in the subject will be 100% formed by the qualification in that activity.

EVALUATION IN EXTRAORDINARY CALL OF JULY:

1. Students who have not passed the exam in ordinary session must attend it. Once this examination has been completed, the established weightings will be applied as a general evaluation rule.
2. Students who do not pass any of the other elements that make up the assessment of the subject must attend it. These students, in addition to examining all the subject matter, must perform a series of complementary practices defined by the teacher.
