DATOS ESPECÍFICOS DE LA ASIGNATURA

Contextualización de la asignatura
Aportación al perfil profesional de la titulación COURSE AIMS AND OUTCOMES This course consists of a comparative and contrastive study of how Anglo-American writers from various cultures and eras have represented Spain in their texts. The writers whose work we will study include Richard Ford, George Borrow, Washington Irving, Ernest Hemingway, John Dos Passos, George Orwell, Gerald Brenan, Laurie Lee and other contemporary authors such as Michael Jacobs, Chris Stewart and Jason Webster. The overall aim is to familiarize students with the vast amount of literature that has been produced in English about Spain, its history and its culture. The expected outcome is that they will be able to produce their own critical and/or critical work on this subject.
Prerequisitos COURSE PREREQUISITES Native or Advanced level of English (minimum C1).
