TEACHING METHODOLOGY

General methodological aspects of the subject

Contact hours methodology: Activities

Students must prepare the reading material and the assignment before the corresponding session. All sessions will be open for discussion at all times and participation is highly encouraged.

For the sessions on substantive law, Students will be asked to bring to the sessions a copy of the relevant legislation to be discussed (OECD Model Tax Convention and Commentary, Treaty of Functioning of the European Union and Treaty of the European Union, Interest and Royalties Directive, Parent Subsidiary Directive, Anti Tax Avoidance Directive). The professor will announce in advance the required legislation.

For the sessions on cooperation and administrative matters, Students must bring to the sessions a copy of the Consolidated Text of the Council Directive 2011/16/EU of 15 February 2011 on administrative cooperation in the field of taxation, together with a copy of the Directive (EU) 2018/822 of 25 May 2018.

Independent study methodology: Activities

Students are expected to come to class prepared, having read all assigned material and having completed all assigned exercises.
