SPECIFIC DATA OF THE SUBJECT

Contextualization of the subject

Contribution to the professional profile of the degree

During the last decades, the World has witnessed a progressive integration in the activities of countries, companies and people. National frontiers have lost part of their meaning, and the scope of most businesses has gone from local to global. The environment faced by companies is now more complex. Opening to the international market implies contact with different languages, cultures and socio-political environment. On the other hand, knowing how the global economy works is a fundamental aspect for making strategic decisions that compete in an interrelated world. Therefore, managers must excel in working with different languages, cultures, and socio-economic environment. This course aims to understand these different realities, and analyze the process of globalization.

Objectives:

- Contribute to a clear and rigorous vision of the globalization process and its different aspects.
- Introduce the student in the economic analysis of the reality of the different economies that make up the international landscape from a business point of view.
- Enable the student with the necessary tools for economic analysis in order to understand the processes business development, of financial and commercial opening.

Ratings

Students will have two opportunities to pass the course: one during the regular teaching period and the other in a resit evaluation period that will take place in the month of June/July.

To pass the course during the ordinary teaching period, the student must obtain a minimum grade of 5 in all the defined evaluation systems (class participation, the final exam and proposed projects/assignments).

Those students who do not pass this first evaluation may repeat the individual exam and/or the project/activities defined by the teacher in the June/July resit period. The grades obtained by the students in the rest of the components of the evaluation -with their corresponding weightings in the final grade- will be maintained in this second evaluation.

Students with a waiver for class attendance will be graded based on the final exam.

It is strictly prohibited to use any instrument based on Artificial Intelligence (Ex: GPT Chat) to carry out any activity included in the evaluation of the subject.
