SPECIFIC DATA ON THE SUBJECT

Pre-requisites
None
Contribution of the degree to the professional profile
Students will have the opportunity to develop specialized knowledge of a specific area related to European business law. Through this academic writing, students will develop and hone a strong ability to develop arguments, analyse information and articulate complex thought in dissertation form. Students will learn to support ideas with data and argument. Dissertations are expected to be approximately 20,000 words, excluding footnotes and bibliography. More information on formatting and organization will be provided at the legal research seminar at the start of the academic year.

Tentative Work Calendar

AREA 1
Topic Development
As part of your introductory coursework, students will attend a class on legal research in which we will discuss topic development, supervisor assignment and deadlines. The thesis, also known as the TFM (Trabajo fin de Masters) is an independent study. Students must successfully write and defend a thesis to graduate from the MIEBL program.
